

HOW TO FIND YOUR LINK AND WATCH A RECORDING OF AN ALUMNAE COURSE

1. Open the email associated with your NBO account and course enrollment. If you maintain more than one email address, check all of them.
2. Scroll down to find an email from Norris Virtual. Recordings are available for six days following each lecture. This is an example of what you should see:

4. Click on the link.

Note: Sometimes Zoom will prompt you to log into your Zoom account first. We have upgraded our software and are working to find out why this happens intermittently.

Either way, you will end up in a Zoom window that looks like this:

We have upgraded our Zoom platform over the summer. Please note that emailed links to the live streams now come from Zoom webinar and events. Recordings will still come from Norris Virtual this quarter.

Tectonic Shifts in the Global Economic Landscape

Tectonic Shifts in the Global Economic Landscape
The rules-based international economic order has fractured. To better understand the economic earthquake and its aftershocks, this lecture follows two tracks. First, I will identify some key reasons for the turn against globalization. Second, I will try to map the global economic terrain in the wake of the current assault on the foundations of globalization.
